

2015 Venue Rental FAQs Event Planning Guide

Contract/Deposits

Events may be booked Monday through Sunday during Public and After Hour considerations. Event bookings are not available on Thanksgiving Eve, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Years Eve and New Years Day. The Center does not permit bookings of prom, sorority, fraternity, religious (other than wedding ceremonies) or political events.

Space can be held on a tentative basis for up to 7 business days from the initial inquiry date. Requests received from other inquiries during this hold time frame will result in a call made to the initial contact for a first right of refusal. If no response is provided within 24 hours of the call, the space hold will be released back into available sale inventory.

To book an event, the Licensee ("client") is to be a current member of the center. A Membership form is located on the center's website at www.fristcenter.org. Bookings must be arranged by a person authorized to make financial commitments and authorized signatory of contracts from the requesting organization.

Event date(s), event time and function space(s) are confirmed upon receipt of a signed Venue Rental contract, a 50 % non-refundable deposit of the rental fee (100% deposit required with a booking occurring 45 days or less prior to the event date) plus a valid credit card on file. The deposit will apply as a credit to the event expenses. Sections A, B, & C of the contract are to be reviewed and page 4 of Section B signature page is to be returned with the Venue Rental signed contract.

Public Space Bookings (The Grand Lobby or *The Turner Courtyard)

The Grand Lobby is only offered for rental when the center is closed to the public. Events held in the Grand Lobby cannot begin before 6:30pm. *The grass area of the Turner Courtyard is available for rent during public hours with specific operational guidelines that must be followed.

Non-Public Space Bookings (Auditorium) – may be booked during public or After Hours time frames.
