Joseph Mallord William Turner was an 18th-century English artist who painted places both as he saw them and how he imagined them. Think about places you’ve traveled or would like to visit. Draw three of these places on the suitcase labels.