About FAM

Who We Are

The Frist Art Museum (FAM) opened in April 2001 and is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Originally conceived through a community visioning process to shape the city's future, FAM is a leading institution in Nashville's cultural fabric and has gained national and international recognition for its exhibitions and programs. Located downtown in a beautifully restored 1934 art deco building, FAM serves a metropolitan area with nearly 2 million people. Museum operations and programming are managed by a staff of nearly 70, led by executive director and CEO, Seth Feman, PhD, and guided by a 27-member board.

Mission

The mission of the Frist Art Museum is to present and originate high-quality exhibitions with related educational programs and community outreach activities.

Vision

The vision of the Frist Art Museum is to inspire people through art to look at their world in new ways.

Exhibition Visitor Comments

“

As a Cuban American, first-generation American who has lived with the loss and joy of exiled family. Thank you. This is powerful. My own daughter with me today, no better way to understand our family.

– comment for On the Horizon: Contemporary Cuban Art from the Pérez Art Museum Miami

“

Reconfirms how important the arts are in the educational experiences of our children. Every other skill they need to acquire is enhanced by art, music, and movement experiences.

– a comment for Nashville Art Teachers: Beyond the Classroom

“

This is the best exhibition I have seen in years, I will forever be changed.

– a comment for Light, Space, Surface: Works from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art

Since 2002, the Frist Art Museum has made internships available for college students to engage them in the workings of a noncollecting museum. At that time, students could use this opportunity for volunteer experience or college credit, with a teacher assistantship being the only paid position. In early 2021, the museum answered the call to investigate and combat inequities, which led to the reevaluation of our Diversity, Equity, Accessibility, and Inclusion (DEAI) strategic plan. To fulfill one of our main priorities, the Frist began offering paid learning opportunities with the intent of reflecting the surrounding Nashville community that it serves, developing future engagement and investment, and establishing a pipeline and providing leadership training for diverse and emerging museum professionals. As the Frist navigates through this initiative, data is collected and analyzed to study the trends of college applicants and selected candidates based on location in which the students are enrolled, whether it is public or private as well as the department in which they are placed based on program of study or interest. More information regarding demographic and actual programs of study will be collected in the future to capture the qualitative and quantitative impact of our program.
